About Me

Hi, I'm Irusha Dilshan.

I'm a passionate Full-Stack Developer and Mobile App Specialist currently studying at SLIIT. I specialize in building innovative mobile applications with Kotlin and Android Studio, and I'm actively expanding my expertise in the MERN Stack for full-stack web development.

I've worked on exciting projects like VeeGo (Vehicle Rental App), Habit Tracker, and ServSync. I love creating user-friendly mobile interfaces and solving real-world problems through technology.
